Trembling Before G-d

Monday, April 4 - 6:30 pm
Free Admission - Carroll Hall 111

Film Screening and Discusstion with Director Sandi Simcha DuBowski

Co-sponsored with the UNC LGBT Office, The Performing Arts and Special Activities Committee of the Office of the Executive Vice Chancellor and Provost, Department of Housing and Residential Education, and UNC Parents' Fund. Directed by Sandi Simcha DuBowski. Not Rated, 80 Minutes, 2001
Trembling Before G-d is an unprecedented feature documentary that shatters assumptions about faith, sexuality, and religious fundamentalism. Built around intimately-told personal stories of Hasidic and Orthodox Jews who are gay or lesbian, the film portrays a group of people who face a profound dilemma - how to reconcile their passionate love of Judaism and the Divine with the drastic Biblical prohibitions that forbid homosexuality. Following the screening, Mr. DuBowski will speak on the issues discussed in his film and will lead a Q&A session that will create an open dialogue about the stereotypes the film discusses. www.tremblingbeforeg-d.com
