Assessment based on functional professional tasks. They may have “passed” an assessment of their English when... Overall, their required speaking tasks may include classroom fluency, pauses, hesitations, self-corrections, fillers... Pronunciation differences (vowels, consonants, syllable stress) facilitate task frequency of phonetic errors. Minimal and near-minimal speech rate with their... 3. Who... Pronunciation questions designed to stimulate the subject’s... D1.5 Generally understanding what people say... D4.4 Making new friends... Six questions from the categories Understanding and communicating: Getting along with people; life activities; Participation in society:... D1.1 Starting and maintaining a conversation... D4.1 Dealing with people you do not know... D6.1 Joining in community activities...