Blood Done Sign OUR Names

The Lessons of Censored History For Our Struggles Today

Panel Discussion

- Matt Robinson---local historian and writer ...history of the James Cates murder on the UNC campus in 1970
- Nate Davis---Chapel Hill native, NAACP 2nd Vice President ...witness to his cousin's racial murder in the Pit and the black uprising
- Tim Tyson---author of UNC's summer reading ...the murders of Henry Marrow and Cates in historical perspective
- Barbara Prear---former UNC Housekeeper, leader of UE Local 150 ...the struggle of UNC's campus workers to be treated as human beings
- Donelle Boose---senior, Campaign for Historical Accuracy and Truth ...the movement for an honest telling of UNC's history

Monday, September 12, 2005 7:00 pm, Murphey 116

Sponsored by: Campaign for Historical Accuracy and Truth (CHAT), Campus Y, Chapel Hill-Carrboro NAACP, Social and Economic Undergraduate Minor, Student Action with Workers (SAW), UNC NAACP, United Electrical Workers Local 150 (UE 150), Women's International League for Peace and Freedom (WILPF)