Editor's Letter

It's hard to believe that it's been five years since the birth of New Bern Now (NBN)!

If you haven't heard the story, here it is...before I moved to New Bern, I was stationed in Washington, DC, as a Navy Chief Hospital Corpsman and had 30 days to transfer to Naval Hospital Cherry Point. After numerous Internet searches, it was very difficult to find everything I needed to know about the area while house hunting. When I retired, I spent a lot of time "searching" for what I wanted to do with the new chapter in my life. Our economy was hit hard and after talking with a local small business owner, I realized how hard it was for her to promote her business. She's the reason why I decided to create a "One Stop, Information Shop" for the Greater New Bern area. I wanted to help our local businesses and non-profits market their services and products.

The saying, "if you build it, they will come" rings very true! I would stay up every night trying to think of what to write about New Bern. Now, I receive numerous emails and calls from people who want to spread the message about their community efforts, events, and all kinds of requests for information to be published on the website, community segments on the radio, video spotlights, and the Ledger. It's obvious that NBN wouldn't have survived without your support and encouragement along the way!

We look forward to promoting your efforts and want to make sure that you know that the Ledger is an extension of the website, just like NBN's YouTube Channel, Facebook page, Twitter, etc. It's created quarterly by using the information from the past quarter along with upcoming events, new businesses, and other interesting topics. So if you send us an event listing in April for December, it will be uploaded to New Bern Now's website and when it comes time to print the October - December Edition, it will already be listed on the Community Calendar.

As you've probably noticed, I'm content driven and I'm not a graphic designer. With that said, I hope you enjoy the new design. I welcome constructive criticism and would really appreciate any guidance that you may have for the design and/or content of the website and Ledger.

I also welcome contributing authors. If you have a specialty (i.e. Kate Horney of BeyondFitPhysiques writes "Healthy Living" articles for NBN), we would love to hear from you! It's a great way to help others with do it yourself projects, educate people about your services and/or products (no advertorials), and entertaining others by sending us fun stories. Our motto is "promote, not demote".

We're also very excited to offer a new service for local businesses that are listed in the Ledger. When you see our logo:  you'll know that the business believes in New Bern Now and we hope you support those who support our community's website!

Is your business or non-profit listed in the Ledger for free? If so, you can increase prospective visitors to your website by paying a small fee of $10 per month to have a link back to your website and NBN's logo next to your listing.

Or you can become an advertiser for only $125 per quarter. Your business/non-profit stands out and it also helps cover the cost of printing the Ledger. This is a Win-Win! The more advertisers we have, the more hardcopies are printed/distributed throughout the Greater New Bern area.

Please send me an email or call 252-638-6858 if you'd like to help promote our efforts. The Ledger is published in hardcopy format and is also available online in color - 24/7. Where else can you market and advertise your business at these affordable costs?

Craven Community College is now preparing for its 50th Anniversary celebration which will begin in September. The college would like alumni, students, parents, and community members to participate! CCC is requesting stories, looking to build its alumni list, and seeking volunteers. We want to know how CCC has made a positive impact in our community and in the lives of students and other friends of CCC. The college is very excited about the opportunity to thank the community for its 50 years of support during its anniversary celebration. - Deborah Kania

New Bern Parks and Recreation will be hosting a series of camping trips for students between the ages of 12-16 years old. Join Craven County Clean Sweep on May 3, 2014 to help keep New Bern streets and waterways free of litter. It's your choice to help out in any of these ways: by walking along the streets in your own neighborhood; by using your boat to clean up a waterway; by meeting with others at Lawson Creek Park on that Saturday at 9am to be assigned a spot or by simply picking any other "trashy" area that's been bothering you. Bags will be provided. The bags will, also, be picked up where you leave them so you do not have to carry them to another spot! For more information, call 633-1477. - Judi Lloyd

Fishing Report by Captain Gary Spec Fever Guide Services (249-1520): Anglers can catch the last of the shad run in early April. Stripers will be returning down the Neuse to New Bern post spawn and the top water fishing for them will be dynamite. Red drum, specks and flounder will be getting active on the river shorelines as well. Don't miss out on some of the best fishing of the year.
