CIT ON THE MOVE

At last! CIT staff will not be spread out all over the campus in several offices. All our staff, except for Video Services, are moving to new quarters in the lower level of the Smith Building. (Our telephone numbers will remain the same.) The consolidation will enable us to provide new and better services for our clients. We're planning a formal open house in the Fall, but visitors are welcome anytime.

ATN TRAINING CENTER CLASSES FOR AUGUST 1999

The ATN Training Center offers computer classes for UNC-Chapel Hill faculty, staff, undergraduates, and graduates. Registration details and the schedule for August classes are on the Web at <http://help.unc.edu/training/schedule/>. For more information about the ATN Training Center, see their Web page at <http://help.unc.edu/training/>.

If you can't make it to a class, but still need to learn the skills, check out this Web page: <http://help.unc.edu/cbt/>. You can take the computer-based training (CBT) courses on this Website in the comfort of your office and at your own pace.

NEW AND UPDATED ATN DOCUMENTS

Mulberry document updated for version 1.4.3

This document is updated for the newest version of Mulberry, an email program, now being distributed via shareware. <http://help.unc.edu/cgi-bin/getdocs?docnumber=ieg14>

SAS/ASSIST: Easy Access to SAS Version 7

This document has been updated for the SAS Version 7 and includes some great exercises on some basic SAS functions for version 7.

<http://help.unc.edu/cgi-bin/getdocs?docnumber=sas09>

Two new FrontPage Documents, and a third on the way:

- (1) FrontPage98: Creating a Web Site
- (2) FrontPage98: Borders, Tables, and Frames, and
- (3) FrontPage98: Fine Tuning and File Management.

Excel 97: Electronic Class Rolls

This document explains how to use the electronic class rolls together with Excel97 to manage and track student grades. This is a great document that finally uncovers the mystery behind getting the electronic class rolls into a usable format.

<http://help.unc.edu/cgi-bin/getdocs?docnumber=dwe31>

Both the individual and group versions of Putting your Page on the Web have been modified to include the Protect feature, which allows Web designers to password protect their Web pages with a very simple process.

<http://help.unc.edu/docs/Internet.shtml#development>

The CCI User's Reference is available on the Web and being constantly updated. This is a good resource for those who have lots of questions on the CCI and/or their new CCI computers.

SCHOOL OF SOCIAL WORK TECHNOLOGY NEWSLETTER

Three times a year, the School of Social Work's Human Services Smart Agency produces a newsletter called Smart Bytes. The publication discusses uses of technology among public and private nonprofit agencies in North Carolina. The paper version of the newsletter reaches over 5,000 human service personnel in North Carolina and in many other parts of the country. Topics typically covered include emerging technology, computers in the field, and quick tips. To view back issues of Smart Bytes online, go to <http://ssw.unc.edu/hssa/> and click the "Newsletter" button. For more information, contact Rosemary Hallberg, Publications Specialist, School of Social Work, rdhallbe@email.unc.edu
